

Data Processor / Reports Writer

This role may offer an immediate start for the right candidate.

The Company: An international specialist which has earned an enviable reputation for the reliability and quality of its Independent Consultancy, Measurement Services, Impressed Current / Sacrificial Cathodic Protection Systems, CP Engineering, Ports and Harbours services and Electric Field Sensors.

The Role:

- You will analyse offshore collected survey data using bespoke in-house software
- Produce technical written reports to be issued to high profile oil and gas clients
- Potential opportunities to work offshore and travel abroad
- Work as a team with of engineers and the rest of the processing/reporting staff.
- Adhere to the Company's Health and Safety Policy and Quality manual procedures.

Experience/Skill:

- Good knowledge of Microsoft office
- Good written and verbal communication skills
- Good time management and organisational skills to meet deadlines
- Scientific background or degree preferable but not essential

Location: Hampshire - UK and international travel will be a requirement of this role.

Salary: £13k - £15k DOE, plus benefits package